Gallery. Opening Sunday, Oct. 5, and running through Oct. 26, an opening reception will be on Sunday Oct. 5 from 1 to 5 p.m. The gallery is located at 48 High Street, in Dayton's St. Anne's Hill Historic District. Gallery hours are: Thursdays and Fridays 1 to 4 p.m. Saturdays and Sundays 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. Free at all times. For more information call 937-258-4532.

Opera lecture on Turandot Oct. 8 & 14

Dayton Opera's 2008-2009 "Love Triumphant" season opener, Puccini's Turandot, is one of the world's most beloved operas as well as the composer's final opera. To help audience members prepare for these exciting performances and celebrate Puccini's 150th birthday, Dayton Opera is pleased to offer Opera Overtures, free-to-the-public talks about the opera's story, history and other entertaining tidbits.

Talks are one-hour long and led by Luke Dennis, director of arts education for Muse Machine and opera guru extraordinaire.

SCHEDULED OVERTURES: TURANDOT (Puccini)

Wednesday, October 8, 2008 - 7:00 p.m. The Emporium, 233 Xenia Ave., Yellow Springs

Tuesday, October 14, 2008 - 7:00 p.m. Trinity Presbyterian Church, 3211 Lakeview Ave., Dayton

Performances are Saturday, Oct. 18, 2008 at 8 p.m., Friday, Oct. 24 at 8 p.m. and Sunday, Oct. 26 at 3 p.m. Single tickets are on sale now and start at $15. To order by phone, call 937-228-3630. For more information about Dayton Opera visit www.daytonopera.org.

The Dayton Association of Chinese Americans (DACA) and the Dayton Opera are joining together to bring a Chinese Cultural Celebration to the Schuster Center prior to all three performances of the Dayton Opera's production of Turandot. The Celebration will take place in the Wintergarden and will feature demonstrations on calligraphy, paper cutting, paper knotting, Mah Jongg, table tennis, yo-yo spinning, story telling, singing and other traditional dances.

Youth piano competition seeks entries

The Dayton Chamber Music Society is calling for entries to the Eleanor McCann Piano Competition for Youth which will take place April 4, 2009 at Christ Episcopal Church, 20 W. First St. in Downtown Dayton. First place prize is $1,000; second place prize is $500.

The competition is being held in memory of the late Ms. Eleanor McCann who "dedicated her life to the introduction of area young people to the excitement of music and its developmental effects," according to the announcement received.

The number of finalists will be limited to a maximum of eight to ten and will be chosen from CD recordings. Each finalist will be allowed a total playing time of twenty minutes.

The competition is open to contestants between grades 9 and 12 as of the 2008-09 school year (no exceptions) and must reside in Montgomery, Miami, Greene, Clark, Warren, Clinton or Preble County.

To receive an application form and entrance procedure requirements, call 436-2603 or e mail a request to jsrbobo@aol.com. Materials must be postmarked no later than February 14.
