JULY 28

Incidents

MULTIPLE COUNTS: In the 400 block of East Drive – Officer T. McCalister and Keith Benson were dispatched there on a report of two suspicious white males, who had dumped two bikes across the street and then left of foot and split up going toward Delaine and East Dr. The officers approached one of the two subjects and identified themselves as police officers multiple times asking him to stop. The subject fled on foot and jumped a fence. The officers finally caught the subject, Merric Evans-Lane of Kettering, and handcuffed him. Upon searching the subject a concealed weapon with a more than 3-inch blade was found. He is charged with: criminal damaging, criminal mischief, resisting arrest, obstructing official business and carrying a concealed weapon. Male was transported to The Montgomery County Juvenile detention center.
