428 Hadley Avenue $115,000

Great home, great neighborhood. Built in 1928, this two bedroom, one bath frame bungalow is a vintage Sears "Pittsburgh model" home. Constructed entirely of first-generation hardwood lumber and double-walled design, this sturdy home offers both comfort and a Craftsman style to the prospective buyer.

Original yellow pine flooring first and second floor, one half finished basement, new central air conditioning and furnace, original Sears clawfoot tub with shower, antique (circa 1895) cast iron pedestal sink from historic Trace House, high speed Internet and cable, updated kitchen, covered front porch, detached one car garage, insulated attic. Great starter home.

Wine tasting to benefit MetroParks campaign

The Wine Gallery and Café at Third and Wayne in Dayton will host A Taste to Protect Our Parks, a wine tasting party, on Sunday, Sept. 20, from 5 to 8:30 p.m. All proceeds benefit the Protect Our Parks campaign in support of the Five Rivers MetroParks replacement levy, Issue 4 on the Nov. 3 ballot. Oakwood resident Jaci Hollmeyer will be pouring tastes of five premium wines, and a selection of appetizers and hors d'oeuvres will be offered.

Tickets are $40 per person, available in advance at The Wine Gallery and Café, 424 E. Third Street in Dayton, and at The Wine Gallery location inside the National City 2nd Street Market. Non-alcohol tickets will also be available at the door for $30 per person. Please make checks for tickets payable to The Wine Gallery and Café. For more information on A Taste to Protect Our Parks, please call 224-WINE (9463). To learn more about how you can support the Protect Our Parks levy campaign, visit metroparks2009.org.

Sinclair hosts 3rd annual wine tasting

The Sinclair Community College Alumni Affairs office will host its third annual wine tasting, A Vintage Affair, on Friday, Sept. 25. Open to the public, A Vintage Affair features wine, hors d'oeuvres and music by the Eddie Brookshire Trio. The event will be hosted in the plaza outside the Sinclair Conference Center on Friday, Sept. 25, from 5:30 to 8 p.m.

All attendees will receive a souvenir wine glass and appetizers will be served. A wine expert will also be on hand to perform demonstrations and answer questions. Attendees also earn a chance to win a free dinner at a local restaurant.

Tickets are $20 for five sample tickets, $40 for 10 sampler tickets and $10 for non-alcoholic entry. Tickets are also available at the door.

Early bird prices are available for those ordering by Friday, Sept. 18. Early bird prices are $16 for five sampler tickets, $32 for 10 sampler tickets and $8 for a non-alcoholic entry.

Charity Gala to benefit Muscular Dystrophy

Dayton Racquet Club cordially invites the public to attend 'Dayton's Culinary World Tour' on Friday, Sept. 25. The evening will begin with cocktails at 7 p.m. and end with a live auction at 10 p.m. This event is black tie optional. $50/person and $90/couple, with complimentary garage parking. Call 937-224-4381 to make your reservation.

Funds raised from the 2009 ClubCorp Charity Classic will benefit the Muscular Dystrophy Association (MDA), specifically "Augie's Quest" ClubCorp's Employee Partners Care Foundation and a local nonprofit group selected individually by each participating club.

To participate or to sign up for this event, please visit the ClubCorp Charity Classic Web site at www.clubcorpcharityclassic.com or call the Dayton Racquet club at 937-224-4381.

3rd Annual Dayton Peace Festival Sept. 19

The third annual Dayton Peace Festival will be held from noon to 8 p.m. on Saturday, Sept. 19, on Courthouse Square. The free festival will be an opportunity for the community to discover what's happening to promote peace and reduce violence in the Greater Dayton area while enjoying a relaxing day of outdoor music, dance and drama in the heart of downtown Dayton.

Residents of Dayton and surrounding communities are invited to enjoy a day of live music, featuring guitarist Eric Loy, the eclectic band Miserable Howling Dogs and the Lowdown Rounders, and the mother-daughter duo Vision of Unity. In addition, Steven Gregory will perform at the festival for the third straight year.

New entertainment has been added this year. Members of area congregations will perform a Community Praise Dance, and Smoothstone Productions will present a specially commissioned one-act play on the theme of stopping the violence in our city, They Called Him Coach. Dayton Police Chief Richard Biehl, who brought the Community Initiative to Reduce Gun Violence to Dayton, will present his vision for a safer, more peaceful community.

In addition, children's games and activities will be held throughout the day. The PeaceMobile will be on hand, as well as local agencies and nonprofits that provide services and programs that help make Dayton a better place to live.

At the U.S. Air Force Museum

Family Day Sept. 19

Celebrate the beginning of the fall season by learning about gravity during Family Day from 10 a.m. until 3 p.m. on Sept. 19 at the National Museum of the U.S. Air Force. Try on a parachute, sit in a B-2 ejection seat or make a paper parachute.

Astronaut to speak

Dr. Thomas D. Jones, a veteran NASA astronaut, scientist, speaker, author and consultant, will give a presentation, titled Hell Hawks!: The War No One Told You About and the Heroes Who Helped America Win It, at 7:30 p.m. on Sept. 23 at the National Museum of the United States Air Force.

World War I Dawn Patrol

As part of the WWI Dawn Patrol Rendezvous weekend at the National Museum of the U.S. Air Force, museum galleries, IMAX Theatre, gift shop and café will be open extended hours, with special evening events taking place on Sept. 25 from 5 p.m. - 9 p.m. Pilots and re-enactors from the WWI Dawn Patrol Rendezvous event will be on-hand in the Early Years Gallery from 5 p.m. - 7 p.m. to interact with the public and answer questions about their role in re-creating the WWI time-period. The feature film "Blue Max" will also be shown free of charge in the museum's Carney Auditorium at 7 p.m.

The Kids' Sale at Christ Church

Christ United Methodist Church is gearing up for The Kids' Sale to take place on Saturday, September 19th from 8 am to 12:30 pm. The sale will be held in the Activity Center of the church located at the north end of the building. The Kids' Sale offers more than 6,000 square feet of quality new and gently-used clothing, furniture, baby items, toys, maternity items, books, videos, games and more. This sale includes merchandise from over 60 sellers and a portion of all proceeds benefit local children's charitable organizations.

The Kids' Sale offers families an opportunity to purchase new or gently used items for their children at affordable prices, which is an ideal arrangement in these current economic times.

For more information on The Kids' Sale, contact Christ United Methodist Church at (937) 293-3151, email thekidsale@christumc.org, or go to www.christumc.org.
