Town from page 5 record, and then beat her record senior. year. She lettered two years in swimming and four years in track." She and her husband, Tom, live in Oakwood. Her parents, the Robert Deddens, and her siblings were all in the audience.

Thomas "Blitz" Creager presented the 1942 Football Team. "Oakwood's first undefeated team! The 419 points scored were the most of any team in Ohio that year." began Blitz. "They defeated Greenville, Wilmington, Piqua, Xenia, Lebanon, Wyoming, Troy, Cincy Voc. And Fairmont!"

Former Ohio Governor Bob Taft and 'First Lady Emeritus' Hope Taft had lunch last Friday at Culps Café in Carillon Park. It was a beautiful day for the 'under-the-umbrellas' patio. 'Round Town' and Hope had a few words about the Sept. 23rd luncheon at the Engineers Club for the 'Gardens of the Governor's Mansion.'

The Dayton Theatre Guild has 'opened' in their new, stunning, downtown Oregon district – the "Caryl D Philips TheatreScape". "It's been nine years since the work began..." said Ralph

Dennler. "I was a junior at Fairview High School in 1947 when a classmate was appearing with the Guild. I had my first experience with theater which has continued, only broken by a decade of college, graduate school, and living in Europe – until today," said Burt Saidel

'Round Town' remembers when the Guild began in Ms. Corwin's carriage house on Belmont Park circle. Then it moved to the old Post Office on upper Salem Avenue. In those years Jean Barger was a prime-mover – and she also directed our Junior League's Childrens Theater.

'Les Liaisons Dangereuses' – The Guild's opening vehicle in their new 'digs' is set in 1789 in Paris and demonstrates one of the prime causes of The French Revolution. Ame Clase, Wendi Williams, Charity Farrell, Nathan Hudson, Michael Boyd, Nicklaus Moberg, Destany Schafer, Barbara Jorgensen, Amy Brooks, and Katrina Kittle comprised the terrific cast. Natasha Randall & Craig Roberts choreographed the best dueling/fencing scene seen in live theater!

It was great to see Elaine and Bob Stein in the audience. Also Christine Hollis and Kathy Kavanaugh.
