Moms Group of Oakwood events

Fall Mixer

is scheduled for Thursday, Sept. 24 at 7 p.m. at the home of Valerie Rossi, 1119 Oakwood Ave. All current and prospective MOMs Group members are welcome at this first meeting of the new year. For more information contact The Outreach Committee: Karen Wonders at 937-477-8213.

March with the Oakwood Band is scheduled for Wednesday, Sept. 30 at 12:30 p.m. Bring your little ones to the band practice field behind Mack Hummon Field for a chance to march right along with the band as they prepare their halftime show. Email field trip coordinator Sarah Cicora at sarahc918@hotmail.com for more information.

Liberty Group hosts 2nd meeting

The Oakwood Liberty Group will host its second meeting, Tuesday, Sept. 29, in the Oakwood Council Chambers on Park Avenue from 7-8:30 p.m. All Oakwood residents are invited, regardless of political party affiliation.

We are deeply concerned about the direction of our nation, and are equally frustrated with many of our politicians, from all political parties. We are a local non-partisan group, which is passionate about respecting the Constitution and the Bill of Rights.

We believe in shrinking the size of government and encouraging fiscal responsibility.

Our featured speaker for the evening will be Larry E. Schweikart. An American historian, He is a professor of history at the University of Dayton and the author of more than a dozen books. He will speak about the origins of the political parties, where they came from, what their differences were and are. Our second speaker will be Ron Alban who will speak about his efforts to eliminate the estate tax.

Sinclair hosts annual wine tasting

The Sinclair Community College Alumni Affairs office will host its third annual wine tasting, A Vintage Affair, on Friday, Sept. 25. Open to the public, A Vintage Affair features wine, hors d'oeuvres and music by the Eddie Brookshire Trio. The event will be hosted in the plaza outside the Sinclair Conference Center on Friday, Sept. 25, from 5:30 to 8 p.m.

All attendees will receive a souvenir wine glass and appetizers will be served. A wine expert will also be on hand to perform demonstrations and answer questions. Attendees also earn a chance to win a free dinner at a local restaurant.

Tickets are $20 for five sample tickets, $40 for 10 sampler tickets and $10 for non-alcoholic entry. Tickets are also available at the door.

Lecture on Hills & Dales Sept. 26

On Saturday, Sept. 26, at 2 p.m., Glenn Harper, architectural historian and preservation manager for the Ohio Historical Society, will present "Be Present and Receive Your Park: John Patterson, Hills and Dales Park and the Olmsted Aesthetic" at the Huffman Prairie Flying Field Interpretive Center, located across from Wright Brothers Memorial Hill, 2380 Memorial Road, Wright-Patterson Air Force Base, 45433.

Harper will focus on NCR co-founder John H. Patterson's vision for the city and his twenty-five year relationship with the Olmsted Brothers.

This event is free and open to the public. Seating is on a first-come, first-served basis.
